Example exterior construction materials that *comply with Wildland Urban Interface (WUI) code updates in 2024:

*Tests to ASTM E84 & UL 723 Class B Flame Spread if installed per manufacturer's instructions

- Hewn – company based in Tualatin, OR
  - pressure treated lumber siding
  - maintains look of cedar siding

  https://hewn.com/fire-resistant-products/

- James Hardie Board
  - Fiber cement siding
  - non-combustible cladding & trim
  - claims many insurance companies offer discount

  https://www.jameshardie.com/why-hardie/performance-and-durability

- Trex Decking - company based in Winchester, VA
  - "Transcend" & "Select" decking lines retain Class B fire rating
  - https://www.trex.com/search.115/?subcatfilter=%3A129%3A165%3A183
  https://www.trex.com/products/decking/

- Nakamoto Forestry Shou Sugi Ban – company based in Portland, OR
  - fire retardant treated wood siding
  - shop applied fire retardant Flame Stop II is available for all profiles and grades
  - https://nakamotoforestry.com/shou-sugi-ban-siding/gendai/
  https://nakamotoforestry.com/portfolio/

- Nichiha – USA subsidiary based in Johns Creek, GA
  - fiber cement plank & shake siding
  - founded in Japan in 1956
  - manufacturing plant in Macon, GA opened in 2007

  https://www.nichiha.com/products/premium-plank-siding

- Helpful resources from Western Wood Preservers Institute:
  - Sources for wood product treaters/distributers:
  - https://fireresistantwood.org/portals/3/Documents/FR_Sources.pdf
  - Guidance for properly specifying products:
  - https://fireresistantwood.org/portals/3/Documents/FS_Coating.pdf