

Town of New Castle, State of Colorado

Proclamation

Whereas, Duane Guettler served on the New Castle Town Council from 2000 to 2008; and

Whereas, his service coincided with a period of extensive growth and change in the Town; and

Whereas, he is remembered as a voice of moderation and reason on the Council; and

Whereas, colleagues recall that Duane was dedicated, reliable, engaged, open-minded and a valued contributor to council deliberations; and

Whereas, he served for two years as Mayor Pro Tem, assisting Mayor Frank Breslin; and

Whereas, he also served as a commissioner on the Planning and Zoning Commission; and

Whereas, with his wife Anne he was a long-time resident of New Castle and was a familiar figure both in town and on his beloved hiking trails; and

Whereas, Duane Guettler was with us until March 15, 2018;

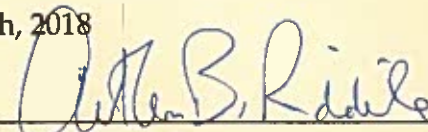

Now therefore, the Town Council of the Town of New Castle mourns the loss of a public servant and honors him for his significant contributions to the community.

Let this proclamation be entered into the official records of the Town

Dated this 20th day of March, 2018
